

<http://hushwalkinginbrisbaneforestpark.blogspot.com.au/2014/08/gold-creek-dam-via-payne-road.html>

“Calling all Christians who care for God’s Creation!”

What’s happening? A meeting for anybody concerned about God’s Creation, who wants to have a Biblical perspective on Conservation & Sustainability.

Venue: Moggill Creek Catchment Area Cottage, at the end of Gold Creek Road.
(through the gate into the reservoir reserve, turn right and uphill; parking beside the cottage)

Date: 15th October, 2016.

Time: 08:00 – 09:00, optional bird walk; 09:00 – 12:00, meeting.

What to bring: Gold coin donation (to cover venue hire). Plate of eats to share. Walking shoes/hat (optional).

RSVP: Ross Jansen-van Vuuren (rossvanvuuren@gmail.com or 0435085095)

PROGRAM

08:00 – 08:45

Optional birdwatching walk (around Gold Creek Dam, shown above)

09:00

Welcome, Opening Prayer, Notices & Upcoming Events

09:10

Dr. Johannes Luetz (Christian Heritage College):

“Lessons Learned Through Studying the Effects of Climate Change”

09:40

Mr. Mark Delaney (Servants Asia):

“From the Slums of India to Environmentalism”

10:10

Morning Tea

10:50

Ms. Emily Jarrett (B Ed, Christian Heritage College): Personal Testimony

11:05

Dr. Ross Jansen-van Vuuren (Christian Heritage College):

“How other Worldviews see the Environment and Sustainability”

11:30

Mr. Roger Jaensch (Director of A Rocha Australia)

Projects, Progress and the Future of this group

12:00

Conclusion